

The Secretary of War and The U.S. Military General brief President Truman on the bomb.	President Truman is notified of the bomb dropping and remarks over radio that "this was the greatest day	Atomic bomb is dropped on Nagasaki.	Japanese physicists start to notice high levels of radiation around the epicenter of the bomb.	Emperor Hirohito of Japan announces over radio that Japan has lost the war.
April 25, 1945	August 6, 1945	August 9, 1945	August 13-14, 1945	August 15, 1945

August 6, 1945	August 7, 1945	August 10, 1945	August 14, 1945	September 2, 1945
Little Boy is dropped on Hiroshima. This bomb has the equivalent of 15 kilotons of TNT.	The decision is made to drop warning pamphlets on Japanese cities.	Warning leaflets are dropped on Nagasaki the day after the bombing.	Japan surrenders.	Japan officially signs official documents of surrender.